Dear Dick:

I'm glad to have the materials that Pat has been sending me for your General Officers Military History Seminar. I was delighted to have a chance to read Bill Holley's piece on General Spaatz, which I think is extraordinarily perceptive, readable and useful for teaching. It makes a remarkable contrast with Al Goldberg's piece, which is OK, but unrelievedly dull after Bill's.

It was good to see you at the Chicago meeting, and I thought your comments on the two papers--and on the subject--very much to the point.

With all good wishes for 1985,

Sincerely,

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian
